GROOMING SESSION AT TABEBOUI (LAKE VIEW CAFE) BY

SHEBANY MORO

Stylist | Image & Personality Coach | Fitness Enthusiast

Shebany brings a unique combination of philosophy and psychology to her coaching sessions. A Graduate in Psychology, she went on to master the holistic science of Philosophy & Psychology before entering the world of teaching. It is her innate sense of style and passion for holistic grooming that made her evolve as a fashion influencer. Shebany believes, style is inherent to each individual and when consciously groomed, it brings alive the unique personality. (Proficient in French, she teaches the subject in media colleges and conducts corporate workshops). An ardent runner, she actively participates in various Marathons and cause runs.

Harnessing style as a tool, Shebany has demonstrated through her work how the transformative power of fashion & grooming can inspire and project confidence, self love and self expression.

Shebany has blended her love for fashion and visual storytelling to create remarkable fashion moments with celebrities, brand campaigns and collaborations with beauty pageants. She believes in using fashion and style as a form of empowerment and has been successful in allowing and helping individuals through her vision & dedication become the BEST versions of themselves.

Shebany is also the co-founder of an Indian Contemporary label called "Almaari by Dipti & Shebany" where she lends her expertise in all aspects of fashion, style & digital visualisation to cater and deliver sustainable designs & styles focusing on comfort which compliments all body types.
